-.. FUR A SETTLEMENT,

Sir William Vernon-Harcourt Thinks the Venezuelan Difficulty Should

court, leader of the opposition in the House

In the course of his speech he referred to the Venezuelan question, and said that a great majority of the people in the United States and Great Britain were eager confessed that he was impatient that a settlement was so long delayed. It was to settle such questions that diplomacy existed. No personal pride or diplomatic obstinacy should be allowed to prevent the

Of the state of affairs in South Africa

he said that the recent grave and momen-

HAYES MAY GO TO CUBA.

Army Officer Will in All Probability Accompany Consul-General Fitzhugh Lee.

Washington, May 5 .- Major Jack Hayes, United States Army, will probably go to FOREIGN NOTES OF INTEREST.

Mr. John J. Barry lives at 104

Concord st., Brooklyn, N. Y., in ... years old. He used to be a freight been troubled with a great deal of since, his attention having been directed to Ripans Tabules, he commenced a course of treatment with them, using them according to directions. As a result the trouble from constipation is overcome, and there is a positive improvemen to be noted in the condition of his rheumatic joints. His daughter, who lives with him and has sufalso uses the Tabules and has found them the greatest possible hered a great deal from dyspepsis.

constipation, but a few months clerk, but for eleven years has done no work, mainly on account of rheumatism. He has always of the National Liberal Club.

settlement. (Cheers.)

Be Ended. London, May 5.-Sir William Vernon-Har-

SUDDEN DEATH OF THE NITRATE KING.

Colonel North's Life Comes to an Abrupt End in a London Office.

He Was Quite Well Up to Within a Half Hour of His Demise, Possibility That He Was Poisoned by Oysters He Had Recently Eaten.

PASSING OF AN EXTRAORDINARY MAN.

His Career Shows How, with Energy and Perseverance, a Capital of $100 May Be Made to Yield Millions.

London, May 5.-Colonel John Thomas North, known all over the civilized world as the "Nitrate King," died to-day in the office of the Guano Syndicate in this city, where he had gone to preside at one of its

He had not been ill up to within a very short time before his death, and as the fatal seizure occurred shortly after he had eaten some oysters, which had been sent in to him from a neighboring restaurant, it is believed possible that his death may have resulted from accidental poisoning.

The police have taken charge of the ton Park Jubilee Stakes, but owing to whole regiment.

ant Characteristics.

friend of the late Nitrate King during a to prevent the development of radical period covering nearly a decade. He lived ideas. Where he lived radical meetings with him for months at a time in the latter's were seldom held, but when they were he beautiful country house, and they were jestingly called by their mutual friends defeating the object of the meetings. "Colonel North" and "Colonel South."

the imperial kennels, offered $50,000 for a Take North all in all, he was a vastly grize winning dog of North's, but the latter better man than some more recent examtwo valuable hounds.

the late Colonel North at my invitation was Cammack, more popularly known as the bear' among his Wall Street friends. North send Burden, of New York, have felt here always had a portrait painted or a statue made of any visitor he took a fancy to, and for Paris.

will be made as soon as practicable.

Colonel North's racing horses, Clayd and Hebron, had been nominated in the Kemp
To Form an Alliance.

Colonel North's racing horses, Clayd and Hebron, had been nominated in the Kemp
To Form an Alliance.

To Form an Alliance.

Saldaut Krueger's reference to the Orwan School of the Tower Hamlet Engineers, and frequently entertained the North had ever owned. Iddesleigh went had a university education.

To Form an Alliance.

Saldaut Krueger's reference to the Orwan School of the Tower Hamlet Engineers, and frequently entertained the North had ever owned. Iddesleigh went had a university education.

Colonel "Tom" Ochiltree was an intimate

Many a time I have sat at his table with a much as popularly reported. hundred other guests. To entertain was one of his greatest hobbies.

Duke Michael of Russia, who has charge of lions as people imagined. would not take any sum for the animal, ples of English millionaires.

"Among the Americans who have visited statue was in the main hall. So I took him | jewels.

in and showed him the stuffed bear, the Grand Duke's gift, which had been set up there. North appreciated the humor of the situation thoroughly."

Colonel North owned property in almost every country on the globe. His cement works near Antwerp, Belgium, where hundreds of men are employed, is another in-Colonel North was married when twenty years of age, shortly before which time his father had left him about £8,000. All of this money he gave to his old mother, keeping scarcely enough to take him and his wife to Chill, whither he went imme-Three children survive him-a daughter, Emma, who married George Locke; Harry, captain of the Royal Irish Fusillers, and Arthur, a bright boy of

Lavish, Extravagant and Original, Colonel North Made Himself Popular with the Masses.

London May 5.—Colonel North's death
Little Likelihood That the Afrikanders Russia is Showing Effusive Friendship for shadow on Friendship for of London. He was luxurious, lavish, the popular bluff hero of the people and the curio of society. He kept up a magnificent seat at Eltham, near London, in Kent, where every foot of the line the case might be, but always expensive. but the Colonel held his court at a great table, where he presided over nightly companies of forty or fifty men, representing an uncommon blending of classes and sorts. Very often these men came in a private car, stayed over night and were driven that the colonel held his court at a great table, where he presided over nightly companies of forty or fifty men, representing an uncommon blending of classes and sorts. Very often these men came in a private of the country.

Vice-President of the Transvaal Republic, mentary campaign. He declares:

"We shall formulate against the declarations of the Government a concrete profold army comrades, and fought Indians to gether before the war. General Lee was to gether before the war to gether before the war to gether before the war to get be said, of prominent racing men here, all of whom would have been gind to see Colonel North's horses generous winners.

Gladstone, his extraordinary canvass lost him the seat. His custom was to appear on the platform, make a few jesting remarks, announce that he did not under-marks, announce that he did not under-marks. PRINCE OF ENTERTAINERS.

Colonel "Tom" Ochiltree Talks on Some of His Dead Friend's Pleasant Characteristics.

Marks, announce that he did not understand and politics himself, but followed Salisbury, who did. He had the private fire engines parade, painted his dogs in his election colors and in many ways made an extraordinary and original campaign, at the anti-private fire engines parade, painted his dogs in his election colors and in many ways made an extraordinary and original campaign, at the end of which the Standard, the Tors come.

Members of the branches of the Volks. end of which the Standard, the Tory organ, declared his defeat was not to be regretted raad were pleased with the President's addeclared his defeat was not to be regretted. He proved to be sufficient of a politician

He was noted for heavy donations to skill

The most surprising tidings carried in the Jewel Thieves.

By Julian Raiph. London, May 5 .- Mr. and Mrs. I. Town-when Cammack made his second visit I was They are no longer needed to testify in Instructed by North to tell him that his the case against the men who stole their

DWELL IN PEACE.

Wish in an Address to the Volksraad.

tinue on Friendly Terms with the Foreign Powers.

England with the Orange

Will Allow Britain to Interfere.

ularity.

The house was maintained like a grand hotel in season. The family dined apart, but the Colonel held his court at a great with reference to the approaching parliamentary campaign. He declares:

dress. They think that the country's interests are safe in Krucger's hands, and of Oom Paul's sagacity and diplomatic

"Colonel North," said Colonel South."

He was noted for heavy donations to Boers from all over the country were charitable objects, though of late he was ast night, in speaking of his dead friend. not nearly as fortunate in business as for here to-day to attend the opening of the vealing an understanding between France, "Colonel North," said Colonel Ochiltree chartable objects, though of interior was last night, in speaking of his dead friend, not nearly as fortunate in business as forwentertained on a larger scale and more laying than any private person in the world.

The lost a large sum in the London-derry, an Australian mine, though not as popularly reported.

The lost a large sum in the London-derry, an Australian mine, though not as gate or commute the sentences of the men lad a long convention. convicted at Johannesburg.

"His kennels and stables were the finest I splte of his Croesus-like reputation, he did largely upon what the British Government have ever seen. A few years 250 the Grand not die possessed of nearly as many mil- does with the cases of Cacil Rhodes and Beit, who were implicated in the Transvaal of wheat to this country. Fifty millions

> CALL CALLS FOR ACTION. Wants the President to Interfere to Save in Cuba. to-day granted the motion made yesterday by Solicitor-General Conrad to advance the case of Wiborg et al., connected with the Horan Cuban expedition, convicted of violation of the neutrality. Washington, May 5.-The Supreme Court lation of the neutrality laws, and set it for relatives. bearing on Monday, the 18th Instant.

Mr. Phillips, attorney for Wiberg, argued against advancing the case. He said the Government was able to act under the neutrality laws without a decision of the Government of Spaln that they shall not tor, and to request and demand of the Government of Spain that they shall not be subjected to excel treatment, but be held only as priseners of war.

The resolution was on the point of being declared by the Vice-President agreed to by unanimous consent when Mr. Wolcott (Rep., Col.), interposed with the remark that if the facts were as stated by Mr. Call it was the manifest duty of the President to interfere, and it was rather unusual to request the President to de his duty.

He therefore objected, and the resolution went over until to-morrow.

AID FOR CUBA LIBRE.

Contributions Are Rapidly Pouring in to Make the Big Fair a Success.

The following donations to the Cuban fair, which will begin May 25, have been received:

In the titions. Beauty is more than skin is merely the surface on which is written in plain characters the coudition of the body, the skin is merely the surface on which is written in plain characters the coudition of the body itself, and skin diseases are frequently not skin diseases at all. All the lotions and bleaches in plain characters the coudition of the body itself, and skin diseases are frequently not skin diseases at all. All the lotions and bleaches in plain characters the surface to which is written in plain characters.

You take great chances when ordering clothing from unreliable firms, but there is no danger possible when ordering from us, as you receive our guarantee warranting garments to wear satisfactorily is good for the complexion because it the body, just so long these impurities stance of his enterprise. He was also a Krueger Voices His Country's Cuban War Is Draining the of Commons, spoke at a meeting to-night Country of Men and Treasure.

SPANISH LIBERALS TO CALL A HALT.

> ates Are to Make an Emphatic Protest.

HE WAS A BLUFF HERO. Is Negotiating for an Alliance Against Appalled at the Statement That Hostilities Are to Continue for Two Years Longer.

the Dons and the Hidalgos. France May Follow the Czar's Lead.

where every foot of the interior walls was Pretoria, May 5.—The Volksraad was Madrid, May 5.—Senor Sagasta, leader of covered with the products of almost prodi-gal outlay, good, bad and indifferent, as the case might be but slways expensive.

"It has ever been my object," he further and to walt two years means to lose twice one of the first things he did was to telemay be made, but a general belief prevails that Colonel North's death was due to some heart trouble. A post-mortem examination will be made as soon as practicable.

The may be made, but a general belief prevails that Colonel North's racing horses. Closed in London, he not of the solution of the republic sound.

The may be made, but a general belief prevails that Colonel North's death was due to some that Colonel North's racing horses. Closed in London, he not of the solution with the foreign powers. It als amid extraordinary solemnities. The and a racing man he held two keys that opened to him the best society drawing for a closer union with the foreign powers. It als amid extraordinary solemnities. The president Krueger also expressed hope for a closer union with the foreign powers. It als amid extraordinary solemnities. The Ambassador, and a racing man he held two keys that opened to him the best society drawing state a point in the most royal style. He was a factly man and a racing man he held two keys that opened to him the best society drawing state a point in the foreign powers. It als amid extraordinary solemnities. The death of the condition of the republic sound.

The Form an Alliance of the Government were present. The Ambassador, after speaking of the cordial friendship and the best society drawing state a point in the most royal style. He was a fanction man he held two keys that opened to him the best society drawing state a point in the most royal style. He was a fine the mining industrices of the country were present. The Ambassador, after speaking of the cordial friendship and the best society drawing state a point in the most royal style. He was a significant way:

"You can take a year's leave to go the cordial friendship and the financial sincere sympathy felt by the Car toward the Milian and colored the President Krueger also expressed hope of the country were present. The Ambassador, after speaking of the cordial friendship and the best society drawing state and all a racing man he held two k

Is There an Alliance!

This incident is much commented on that he will maintain peace without forfeit. here, especially as it follows immediately ing any rights of the nation. Many of the after the grant of the Golden Fleece to the Boers gave expression to their admiration Czarewitch, and the order of Maria Louisa to the Czarina.

After the reception the Queen Regent had a long conversation with the Ambassador, showing herself extremely amiable to-Russia has shipped 12,000,000 hectolitres more are needed.

on a secret mission, as had been announced. ALHAMA. ANOTHER ROYAL WEDDING.

Princess Louise and Prince Frederick Quietly Made One. Copenhagen, May 5.—Princess Louise, eldest daughter of the Crown Prince Fred-

Advertisement.

ples and blotches Hollow checks

Ripans Tabules are sold by druggists, or by mail if the price (50 cents) is sent to The Ripans Chemical Company, No. 10 Spruce st., New York. Sample vial, 10 cents, benefit.

Advertisements.

Suits to order, $20.00. Trousers,

Silk-lined overcoats to order, $18.00, made from covert cloth on vicunas.

Bicycle suits to order, $12.00. Consisting of a large assortment of plaids, specially adapted for hard Golonel John Thomas North.

his death their nomination will be can-from Extreme Poverty to Vast Wealth.

representative of what is a familiar type and won many of the chief events of the in America—the self-made millionaire. He British turf, among them the Great Jubiin America—the self-made millionaire. was born fifty-one years ago in Leeds, lee Stakes, the City and Suburban and Yorkshire, where he recently unsuccessfully the Goodwood Cup. Among the best-known contested the re-election of Herbert Glad-stone to Parliament. He never had the ad. Diablo and Nunthorpe, both high-class hanvantages of a thorough education, but as a dieap performers.

deserts of Torapaca, and at its close, by sent over as trainer, and, while he was his advice, victorious Chile decided to open a careful, painstaking man, he was handithe industry to free competition. Colonel capped badly by his ignorance of Amer-North purchased at depreciated rates the lean training methods.

The deceased Nitrate King was probably worth $100,000,000, and had an annual ncome reputed to have been $1,000,000. A SELF-MADE MILLIONAIRE

Remarkable Story of Colonel North's Rise

After his most recent return to England Colonel North became interested in the turf. He purchased Avery Hall, an estate at Eltham, near Leeds, and set up a racing establishment there that exceeded in point of splendor anything previously seen in Colonel John T. North was an English England. He got together a strong stable youth received some training as a surveyor In 1893 Colonel North sent a string of thoroughbreds to this country in charge When a young man, he went to Chile of Colonel Thomas P. Ochiltree. He en-with a reserve capital of perhaps £20 in his tered in the American Derby and other pocket, and secured employment as an en- important events. For various reasons glueer on the nitrate coast. During the Colonel North's American venture hardly Chili-Peruvian war he formed an accurate proved as successful as had been anticlestimate of the mineral wealth of the coast pated. His "head lad," Hadfield, had been

North purchased at depreciated rates the Peruvian bonds which had been issued to the nitrate companies, and also got options on railroads and canals. In a comparatively short time he was a millionaire and returned to England, to quadruple his wealth by controlling from London the nitrate market. Several successful speculations in Africa also added materially to his wealth. "He Nitrate King owned a beautiful antry house at Eitham, in Kent, about a miles from London, where he enter-

President Says He Hopes to Con- Senor Sagasta and His Associ- for an early and peaceful settlement. He

Free State.

ENCROACHMENTS TO BE RESISTED, HAS SPAIN SECURED ALLIES? tous revelations must be discussed by car, stayed over night and were driven to the station in the morning in separate vehicles.

Oom Paul's Great Pop-

Colonel North liked to entertain on a grand scale, and gave holiday feasts to great bodies of local militia, railway guards and whoever he chose to invite. It is said that his dogs were housed in mahogany kennels, and were fed food to make the mouths of poor people water.

Colonel North was a man of humble origin, and never denied it. As a city man and a racing man he held two keys that through oxygen also expressed hope of the further forman and a racing man he held two keys that through oxygen also expressed hope official capacity, but, added the President to wait two years means to lose twice those totals.

"We cannot passively await such a loss. We shall in debate discuss the whole question."

"It has ever been my object," he further said, "to promote the development and prosperity of the republic in a peaceable manner, and I expect with the fullest confidence that during this session the Volks rand will assist in restoring rest and peace so that through our united co-operation the country may flourish and become prosperions, and to wait two years means to lose twice those totals.

"We cannot passively await such a loss. We shall in debate discuss the whole question."

Friendship for Russia.

The new Russian Ambassador, M. Donitri Schewitch, yesterday presented his credentials and to wait two years means to lose twice those totals.

"We cannot passively await such a loss. We shall in debate discuss the whole question."

Friendship for Russia.

The new Russian Ambassador, M. Donitri Schewitch, yesterday presented his credentials, and to mid to wait two years means to lose twice those totals.

"We cannot passively await such a loss.

We shall in debate discuss the whole question."

Friendship for Russia.

The two visited the President together, and to-night together, and to-night together.

The two visited the President together.

The two visited the restories, and one of the first things to loss.

We cannot passively back to England, and the venture ended when Colonel North ran for a seat in with a balance decidedly on the wrong Parliament from Leeds against Herbert side of the ledger, to the regret, it may be said, of prominent rading men have all the colonel North ran for a seat in Great Britain's efforts to interfere with affairs of either country.

The Prominent rading men have all the colonel North ran for a seat in Great Britain's efforts to interfere with affairs of either country.

The Prominent rading men have all the colonel North ran for a seat in Great Britain's efforts to interfere with affairs of either country.

The Prominent rading men have all the colonel North ran for a seat in Great Britain's efforts to interfere with affairs of either country.

The Prominent rading men have all the colonel North ran for a seat in Great Britain's efforts to interfere with affairs of either country.

the gossip of London to-night is that in The action of the council will depend ward him. Depends on Britain's Action,

The convicted members of the Johannes I have the highest authority for reaffirmburg Reform Committee have been furnished with better food than they have However, he sent the dog to the Duke as a gift, and in return Michael sent a monstrous BURDENS GO TO PARIS. hished with better food than they have hitherto been supplied with, and are other discussing Cuban reforms with the United States, either formally or informally. food is not now limited to the ordinary fare of bread and ment, but they are permitted to have many luxurles.

Americans Now in Prison

Mr. Call is the Senate to-day asked immediate consideration for a resolution re questing the President to protest against the execution of United States citizens captured on board the schooner Competitor, and to request and demand of the received:

Isy T. Bloom, of Rochester-100 copies of him Chan Liberty March, valued at $50.

Phoenix Music Introduction Co.—Five nickel-instot machines filled with patriotic and popular sheet music.

A Friend of Cuba—A roll-top oak desk.

Cyrns Garrett Davis and W. Channing Cabot—Decorations of Madison Square Garden.

Henry Mannes & Sons—Furalture.

Brentano—Charles Dicken's works.

Cash contributions are being recorded every day in large number in the thousands of subscription books which will not be handed in to the Fair Committee until the big bazaar opens. Confectioners all over the city are promising big stores of candles to the wife of Dr. G. J. Quesada. Mrs. Quessada is in charge of the candy emporium, which will be quite an elaborate booth, and will hold a prominent place in the fair.

The Journal will have a booth at the fair.

The Journal will have a booth at the fair.

and will hold a prominent place fair. I from diseases named above.

If you want to know hundreds of great medical truths, send 21 one-cent stamps to the Cubans. The contents of the and its means of revenue for the will be so novel as to surprise the rest, and it is expected to be very able.

If you want to know hundreds of great medical truths, send 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, and we will be so novel as to surprise the rest. "Common Sense Medical Adviser." Address, WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N, Y.